

World Teachers' Day NT Awards 2025

Nomination Guide

Celebrating 20 years of awarding excellence in the NT

About

The annual World Teachers' Day NT Awards (formerly known as Teaching in the Territory Excellence Awards) recognise and celebrate the contribution of Northern Territory Government school teachers, principals, leaders and support staff for their commitment to providing quality education for Territory children.

The awards recognise staff in nine categories in Northern Territory (NT) schools across six regions: Barkly, Big Rivers, Central, Darwin, East Arnhem and Top End, with each region having a category winner. Each category then has an overall NT winner.

How to apply

Nominations are open from Monday 14 April to Friday 23 May. Ensure you have read the Terms and Conditions prior to submitting your nomination.

LATE NOMINATIONS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.

Choosing a category

You may wish to nominate a colleague, friend, family member or manager to recognise them for the outstanding contribution they're making in their school. This nomination guide gives you a breakdown of the eligibility requirements for all categories; be sure to choose the category in which you can most comprehensively address all of the selection criteria.

If you need assistance with selecting a category, or don't understand some of the criteria, please email teacherawards@education.nt.gov.au or phone 8922 2150.

Once you submit your nomination you will receive a confirmation email. The online nomination system allows you to amend your submission up until the closing date.

Endorsement and judging

Nominations will be considered by the principal or line manager of the nominee who can endorse one nomination per category for their school for further consideration.

Progressed nominations will undergo a quality check to ensure that nominees do not have any current performance issues. Performance issues could be identified by Human Resources, the nominee's principal or line manager or the relevant authority.

Announcements

Finalists are expected to be announced in August.

Regional and overall winners will be announced at World Teachers' Day events on Friday 31 October.
